(a) When a hearing is required before the Council or its appointed board, as specified in Section 8 (e) above, the Council or its appointed board shall schedule the hearing and serve upon all interested parties a notice of time and place of the hearing. The hearing shall be held promptly, but not less than fifteen (15) days after service of such notice and of the Council or its appointed board's written report [Section 8 (d) above].

(b) The parties, or their authorized counsel, may file such statements with the Council or its appointed board, prior to the hearing date, as they deem necessary in support of this position. The parties may appear before the Council or its appointed board in person or by duly constituted representative and may have the assistance of attorneys. The parties may present testimony and evidence, and the right to cross-examine witnesses shall be preserved. All testimony shall be given under oath or by affirmation. The Council or its appointed board shall not be bound by strict rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity but due process shall be observed. (h) In case of refusal to obey a subpoena, the council or its appointed board or the person at whose request it was issued may petition for its enforcement in the appropriate court.

SECTION X. - OTHER REMEDIES

Nothing herein shall prevent any person from exercising any right or seeking any remedy to which he might otherwise be entitled, or from filing of any complaint with any other agency or any court having proper jurisdiction.
